It takes a kehilla - and much siyatte dishmaye - to make a Yom Tov- and what magnificent yamim tovim we had!! I cannot fully express my gratitude to the ribbono shel olam and to so many of you who selflessly dedicated time, thought, effort, creativity and funds to make our yamim tovim the inspiring days they were. To our team of balei tefila and baalei kriya and baalei tekiya, to the gabbaim, to the many who organized and gave shiurim and divrei torah at various minyanim and in our sukka, to Rabbi Paysach Krohn and Rabbi Eitan Katz who joined us and inspired our Ellul preparations, to Rav Schachter for joining our community on Sukkos and speaking to us in Rav Tanchum's and Rebbetzin Yaffa's sukka, to Rav Dr. JJ Schacter for a insightful shiur that brought large numbers to our shul and to the sponsors of all these events, to Rav Aryeh Stechler and the Heichal talmidim who filled our Bais Medrash on Hoshano rabbo, to Fran and Hechover Milton Pfeiffer, our chosson Kol Nearim who are already planning for next year and who at personal expense raised large sums for our shul, to the members who helped him and of course to those who bid and to those who won with their bids, to those whose broad shoulders raised our chassanim and to the person who raised those who raised them to newer heights, to those who changed the paroches and changed them back again and rolled all the sifrei torah throughout the season, to the indefatigable seating committee who with patience of many saints seated and resealed us all, to the Farkases and the Foxes who opened their home to our off campus minyanim and to the participants in the Skoczylas and Jacobs minyanim, to those who organized the evening of hisrorerus on selichos night, to those who edited the Ohel Avrohom, and those who sponsored it and wrote articles for it, to those who blew shofar for the homebound, to those who republished and to those who distributed the black books on yom tov and recollected them for the future, to those who responded to the Kol Nidre and Yizkor appeals, to the lulav and esrog committee- the Israel branch and the local location, the food providers, the selection and repair group, the marketing and distributors and the entertainers, to the Sisterhood who shopped and packed 1600 candy bags, to those who built our sukka and dismantled it, to those who arranged to have fresh free (not for Hoshano Rabbo) aravos available during chol hamoed, to those who organized the neilas hachag, to the hoisters and the dehoisters of the Kol Hanearim tallis and the chasasnim, our young men and women who supervised our children, Zac Schwartz, Aryeh Morris and their high school team who with spirit and efficiency ran our hakofos, to the amazing Elie Konigsberg who just never stopped attending to the details of every part of Yom Tov - with sensitivity and thoughtfulness, to Rav Tanchum Cohen who teaches, paskens, guides and programs with wisdom and sensitivity, and Rav Moshe Tzvi Weinberg who probably set the record for speaking and teaching over yom tov and to Claire, without whom very little would happen in our shul and certainly not in the cheerful and thoughtful manner that it happens.
